Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.

The "Workshop (Round Table 2) - Unemployed Active Citizenship: Benefits & Ways of Activation" took place from April 3-5, 2024, in Penne, Italy, as part of the Forwarding Democratic EU Participation (FORCEP) project. This event focused on exploring the benefits of active citizenship for the unemployed and strategies to activate this engagement within the EU.

On April 3, participants arrived between 10:00 and 15:00, followed by a city tour of Penne from 15:30 to 17:00. This tour provided an opportunity for attendees to get acquainted with the local culture and history, fostering a sense of community. The evening concluded with an intercultural dinner from 18:00 to 19:00, promoting cultural exchange and initial networking among the participants.

April 4 began with participant registrations from 10:00 to 10:30. The official opening featured greetings from the Mayor of Penne and project leaders from 10:30 to 11:00, setting the stage for the day's discussions. This was followed by a presentation on labor market challenges for enterprises and workers from 11:00 to 11:30, with a focus on case studies from the textile and internationalization sectors. From 11:30 to 12:00, there was a discussion on the evolving roles of Job Centres and the EURES network, highlighting new approaches to employment services.

After a coffee break from 12:00 to 12:30, participants engaged in a discussion on emerging employability problems from 12:30 to 13:30. This session allowed for an in-depth exploration of challenges faced by job seekers and potential solutions. A lunch break from 13:30 to 14:30 provided a necessary pause for informal discussions and networking.

The afternoon sessions resumed with a speech from 14:30 to 15:00 on the role of universities in higher education and technology transfer in matching specialist skills with employment needs. Esteemed speakers included Prof. Pierluigi Sacco, Prof. Alessandro Crociata, and Prof. Stefano Cianciotta from the "G. D'Annunzio" University of Chieti-Pescara. This was followed by a session on the challenges faced by employer organizations from 15:00 to 15:30, featuring Dr. Luigi Di Giosaffatte and Mr. Riccardo Padovano from CONFINDUSTRIA and CONFCOMMERCIO Abruzzo.

From 15:30 to 16:00, majority regional councilors Lorenzo Sospiri and Leonardo D'Addazio discussed the role of the Abruzzo Region in promoting employability. This was followed by a session from 16:00 to 16:30 on the challenges of the European Social Fund Plus in active labor policies, presented by Dr. Renata Durante, Director of the Abruzzo Region.

The day concluded with a round table from 16:30 to 17:30 on employment challenges, proposals, and the active involvement of citizens and stakeholders in shaping future EU policies. A second city tour from 17:30 to 19:00 allowed participants to further explore Penne. The evening ended with a dinner at 19:30, providing more opportunities for informal interactions and networking.

The final day, April 5, featured a visit to the Lago di Penne nature reserve and the city museums from 10:00 to 12:30, offering a blend of relaxation and cultural enrichment. A reflections session from 12:30 to 13:00 allowed participants to consolidate insights from the previous days and formulate proposals for a network between municipalities to be included in the final report. The workshop concluded with a lunch at 13:30, marking the end of a fruitful and engaging event. Throughout the workshop, participants had numerous opportunities to network and engage in meaningful discussions, contributing to a collective effort in addressing unemployment and enhancing active citizenship in the EU context.
