

FILMSKI FESTIVAL “ NA POTI ” 2010

World Refugee Day is on the 20th of June. Among the various activities taking place, Zavod Voluntariat – SCI Slovenia and Slovenska Filantropija plan to organize an Film Festival »Na poti« with focus on migrations, asylum and refugees.

The Convention on the Status of Refugees (1951) defines a refugee as a person who »owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality and is unable or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country; or who, not having a nationality and being outside the country of his former habitual residence as a result of such events, is unable or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to return to it«.

In this festival we want to expand on this concept of the refugee and consider all those people who, for various reasons, are forced to leave their home country and seek protection in other countries, including environmental, economic, sexual orientation and gender reasons.

Everyone has the right to draw attention to and point out unfairness, especially when millions of people are forced to leave their homes in search of a decent life. People who are our friends, neighbors, siblings, peers, etc.

That is why we would like to offer you the opportunity to show your insights on this issue through film. You do not need to be professional to participate in this festival, you just have feel like broadcasting your creations to others!
